

Workers Compensation Insurance

Why you should have workers compensation insurance...

- To comply with your state's law, if you have employees
- To ensure your employees are looked after in the event of an injury
- To work with employers and help injured workers return to work quickly
- To ensure that as an employer, you are fully covered

1300 799 422
oib.com.au
service is our policy

Workers compensation is compulsory for employers. It covers your employees should they become injured at work for expenses such as medical treatment and rehabilitation, as well as loss of income.

What services do we offer?

Small Employers

- Advice for the renewal of your policy
- Premium projections leading up to your renewal
- Arranging monthly payments of your premium
- Help with your renewal declarations
- Arranging certificates of currency

Medium/Large Employers

- Workers compensation education
- Deadline scheduling – helping you meet your WorkCover requirements
- Advice to assist your business to meet workers compensation statutory obligations
- Ensure the correct ANZSIC rating applicable to your business

- Wages declaration assistance and audit
- Certificates of currency
- Attending claims review meetings
- Coordinating return to work strategies
- Reviewing quarterly claims reviews
- Providing monthly reports and premium projections
- Review claims costs to ensure they are recovered promptly to reduce the impact on your premium
- Appealing to WorkCover against claims estimates or ratings which are incorrect
- Providing of claim estimate reviews to reduce the impact rates and scheme performance measures that may increase premiums
- Providing risk management options

Who we advise

We cover all employers who employ staff and pay more than the wage thresholds relevant to each state annually.

Getting advice for your business is easy

Call us, email us or pop in to speak with one of our friendly advisers who will be able to assess your needs and provide you with recommendations and advice. Once you are happy to proceed, we will do the rest.